Operating Through the Foundation of Resting in Christ

A New Word: From Striving to Abiding

Matthew 11:28–30 "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest... Take My yoke upon you... and you will find rest for your souls."

We live in a culture that celebrates busyness, performance, and constant striving. But Jesus gives us a different invitation: "Come to Me." Before He calls us to do anything, He calls us to be with Him. In God's Kingdom, fruit is produced through abiding, not striving.

Many people are carrying burdens God never asked them to carry. He is inviting us to exchange pressure for peace, anxiety for trust, and self-effort for dependence on Him. Our identity must come before our activity, and our communion with God must come before our calling.

Ephesians 2:6 reminds us that we are seated with Christ in heavenly places. We don't work to earn God's acceptance—we work from a place of already belonging to Him. Because we are seated with Christ, we can live from His rest instead of constantly trying to prove ourselves – and this is a grace gift.

This truth is practical for every area of life:

- In our personal lives, God is calling us to stop striving for approval and begin resting in our identity as His children.
- In our families, His presence brings peace where stress has ruled.
- In the Church, ministry is most effective when it flows from God's presence, not just busy schedules and programs.
- In the marketplace, God is raising leaders who make decisions with wisdom instead of fear, stewardship instead of greed, and trust instead of anxiety.

Jesus is our perfect example. In John 5:19, He said, "The Son can do nothing by Himself; He can do only what He sees His Father doing." Jesus never operated independently of the Father. Everything He did flowed from an intimate relationship with Him.

The same invitation is for us today. Slow down. Spend time with Jesus. Let His presence shape your decisions, your relationships, and your purpose. When we abide in Him, we don't have to force fruit—it becomes the natural result of a life connected to Christ. Rest is not the absence of work; it is the presence of Jesus. When we learn to abide in Him, everything else flows from that place.

Personal

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked Him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' Mark 12:28-30

Lord, help us understand that abiding in You is a command. In the same way You established the Sabbath during creation, You still call us to rest and draw near to You. You are our life. You sustain all things and make sense of things when we are lost. Draw us, draw me, deeper into a rhythm of rest and renewal in Your presence. Radically increase my love for You. Open my heart to linger with You and listen for Your encouragement and guidance. Let all that I do flow from a place of nearness to You.

Families

"But because of His great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus..." Ephesians 2:4-6

Lord, give us a deeper revelation of the wonder and glory to be seated with You in heavenly places. Strengthen us to rise up as Kingdom families and blood families, together devoted to stewarding our role in God's redemptive plan. Empower families to create and implement rhythms of rest that draw the whole unit into a posture of listening and waiting on God. Speak to families, Lord, and reveal the good works You are pleased for them to walk out together. Give them confidence to take hold of their calling and walk forward in boldness.

The Church

In ministry contexts, it is easy to become distracted by the important tasks that need to happen - organizing worship services, practicing generosity, pursuing biblical unity, and reaching the lost with the Gospel. We often call these "plowing" the fields and "shepherding" the flock. Yet Jesus reminds us that these outward ministries flow from something deeper: our personal spiritual service to God Himself. What is beautiful about relationship with our Father is that when we minister to Him from a heart of worship, we are the ones who leave filled, refreshed, rejuvenated, and restored. The greatest rest we find comes not in finishing our work, but in humbling our hearts and pouring ourselves out in prayer and praise before the Lord.

Luke 17:7-10 - "Suppose one of you has a servant plowing or looking after the sheep. Will he say to the servant when he comes in from the field, 'Come along now and sit down to eat'? Won't he rather say, 'Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and wait on me while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink'? Will he thank the servant because he did what he was told to do? So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.'"

Prayer: Lord, even as we serve in Your Church, guide our hearts to diligently minister to You first. Let our worship, our prayer, and our surrender be the place where we receive Your love and affirmation. Fill us so deeply that our ministries of plowing and shepherding proceed naturally from an overflowing heart - not from duty, but from rest found in You alone.

Businesses

- Pray that business owners would take Sabbath Rest days and not overwork in their own strength.
- Pray that God's Yoke would be upon businesses, owners, and employees.
- Pray that all anxiety and burden over business affairs would be cast on to Christ. 1 Peter 5:7 - Give all your worries and cares to God, for He cares about you.
- Pray that struggling businesses would not grow weary or give up so they would receive a Great Harvest. Galatians 6:9 - So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.
- Pray that God would reveal Himself as gentle, humble, and heart in the business field.

Communities

Jeremiah 29:7 – "Seek the peace of the city... and pray to the Lord for it."

- Pray for peace throughout neighborhoods.
- Pray for unity across different groups.
- Pray for healing from violence, division, and fear.
- Pray for believers to be visible examples of Christ's peace.

Prayer: Father, let Your peace rest upon our communities. Raise people who reflect Christ's love and bring healing wherever they go.

Nations

Lord Jesus, we pray for the largest unreached people group in the world, the Bengali Muslims to be set free from darkness and turn towards the lovingkindness of Jesus. Lord, we pray that you would raise up more laborers from surrounding countries to enter into Bangladesh, to learn language and culture to reach them with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." — Matthew 28:19 (ESV)
